DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This Final Office Action is in response to the amendment filed January 21, 2005. By the amendment, claim 12 has been amended. Claims 12-13, and 15 are present in the application.

Applicant's amendment to claim 12 has overcome the 35 USC § 112 second rejection.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed January 21, 2005 with respect to claims 12-13, and 15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 12, 13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mori (US Pat. 4,932,485) in view of Dialog (Taxation: Commission Plans Common Vat for Gold)

As per claims 12-13 and 15, Mori discloses a computer program product embodied on computer-readable medium (ROM 27 and RAM 27) which comprises code that causes a computer (CPU 21) (see Figure 1) to:

Art Unit: 3623

Identify a unique serial number (col. 4 L 25-29 PLU and customer file 27d, Figure 7);

Identifying an amount of represented by electronic file (col. 4 L 25-29 PLU and customer file 27d, Figure 7 “total weight”).

Mori fails to teach that the amount pertains to the fungible precious metal. However these differences are only found in the nonfunctional descriptive material and are not functionally involved in the steps recited. The identifying step mere identifies an attribute of the data. I Identifying would be performed the same regardless of the nature data. Thus, this descriptive material will not distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art in terms of patentability, see In re Gulack, 703 F.2d 1381, 1385, 217 USPQ 401, 404 (Fed. Cir. 1983), In re Lowry, 32 F.3d 1579, 32 USPQ2d 1031 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made identify an amount of the fungible precious metal in the same manner Mori identifies “total weight” of the item because such data does not functionally relate to the steps in the method claimed and because the subjective interpretation of the data does not patentably distinguish the claimed invention.

Mori fails to explicitly disclose “identified amount being no greater than a deposit of the fungible precious metal having been previously received at the secure facilities”. However, it is well known to have gold depository accounts. Dialog discloses such well-known feature since the account in Dialog would reflect the account owner’s amount of gold held in the account and since these banks hold plural accounts, the individual amount and total amount of gold indicated in the account file would not be more than what is physically on deposit at the bank. Note page 1 of Dialog. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to modify the disclosures of Mori to include the teachings of Dialog in order to minimize the risk of fraud in the system.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

a. Weber (Gold can be your portfolio's ballast) discloses the concept of depositing gold in an account.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
